The prices from SOA are at a similar level as in the previous week. Weak demand in Europe and the USA, partly due to the summer holiday season. In China, demand has increased slightly, but inventories are still on a high level. In Thailand, we hear from some producers that production is only at 50% due to weak demand.

The EURO is also remained constant around 1.09 to the USD. Oil and Gold are down compare to last week.

Weber & Schaer will have a booth at the International Elastomer Conference in Cleveland from October 17-19
