The markets were quite volatile this week, although towards the end of the week Sicom TSR20 was off the highs.

Furthermore, ocean freight rates have risen sharply, and we have heard from several shipping lines that space for June shipments is very limited.

Concerns remain regarding weather-related risks in key producing regions. According to a recent BBC report on the potential impacts of a strong El Niño event, prolonged droughts, extreme heat and changing rainfall patterns could affect major agricultural areas across Asia and other regions.
